The City of Georgetown has issued a call for entries for its annual Sculpture Tour, a juried year-long outdoor exhibit in the bustling Georgetown Cultural District.

Sculpture Tour applications will be accepted May 1 - Sept. 1. Each sculptor may submit up to three sculptures for consideration. Please provide two or three photographs of each piece, showing different angles.

From the applications submitted by the deadline, the City of Georgetown Arts & Culture Board will select the nine 2017-18 Sculpture Tour pieces. All applicants will be notified of the board's decisions by Sept. 30.

Sculptures will be installed by appointment in early November 2017 and remain on display through October 2018. Delivery is the artist's responsibility; installation will be done by City of Georgetown Parks and Recreation staff working with the artist.

No honoraria will be paid; instead, all nine sculptures selected for this year's Sculpture Tour will receive a cash prize based on judging that will take place in November by the City of Georgetown Arts & Culture Board. Checks will be mailed in December. Awards will be:

- $1,500 First Prize (one will be awarded)
- $750 Second Prize (one will be awarded)
- $500 Honorable Mention (seven will be awarded)

Artists will be required to sign a Sculpture Tour contract, which includes a 25 percent commission to the City on any sculpture sold during the exhibit. Once installed, sculptures are covered for theft or damage by City insurance.

The application form is attached. Or if you prefer you can submit your application online at arts.georgetown.org/sculpture-tour-application. If you have any questions about the application or the selection process, please call Dana Hendrix at 512-930-3624.
