

Request for Submissions: Artist Booth Applications for Georgetown Autumn Art Stroll

The Georgetown Arts and Culture Program is accepting applications for 5 artist booths at Grace Plaza in the Downtown Georgetown Cultural District during Georgetown's Autumn Art Stroll, the inaugural district art stroll.

Application Deadline: August 31st, 2021

PROJECT DESCRIPTION: Beginning August 1st, 2021, the City of Georgetown's Arts and Culture Board will invite artists to submit their applications for booth space during the Autumn Art Stroll on October 21, 2021. The Stroll will take place in Downtown Georgetown from 4-8pm and is an opportunity for patrons to view art and purchase art in Grace Plaza, as well as local arts businesses and arts and culture organizations. The Georgetown Arts and Culture Program will provide an opportunity to engage in a public art project, and local arts businesses and arts and culture organizations will offer unique opportunities to engage in arts and culture programming. Please visit arts.georgetown.org for more details on participants and programming during the Autumn Art Stroll.

ELIGIBILITY: This opportunity is open to all professional artists over the age of 18.

EVENT DATE: October 21, 2021; 4-8pm

APPLY: Applications will be submitted through Submittable.com between August 1st and August 31st, 2021: <https://artsgeorgetown.submittable.com/Submit>

SELECTION: From the applications submitted by the deadline, the Events Subcommittee of the Arts and Culture Board will select 5 artists to recommend to the full Arts and Culture Board for acceptance. Artists will be notified of the final selection by September 24, 2021.
