ABOUT THE PAINTED RAIN BARREL PROJECT:

The City of Georgetown's Water Conservation Team is looking to bring awareness to sustainable watering resources with the vibrant addition of art to rain barrels. Our first painted rain barrel event will coincide with the Georgetown Arts and Culture Board's Art Stroll, Arts Festival, and the Water Conservation Team's "Imagine a Day Without Water" events in October 2022. The barrels will be displayed around City facilities and local businesses downtown, before and during the Arts Festival. All painted barrels will be available to purchase via a silent auction that will run through the course of the Art Stroll and Arts Festival.
